

Trader wants roads repaired

MURANG'A A businessman in Maragua has blamed area MP Peter Kamande for not putting pressure on government and roads authorities to improve roads in the constituency.

Gilbert Maina told journalists yesterday leaders have neglected roads and use them as "political carrots" to seek votes.

Kamande said he has pleaded with authorities to repair the roads, but at this time the state has no money for the roads.