8* MOTION – (Hon. John Njoroge Gitau – MCA, Kamahuha Ward)

AWARE that a number of households in Murang'a County live in abject poverty and are deprived of basic human needs such as food, water, healthcare, shelter, security, education and information, these people feel wretched, utterly hopeless, miserable and dejected, considering that if left alone, they are not able to overcome the vicious cycle of poverty that is passed on to generations, further aware that it is the responsibility of the Government to provide the basic needs; this House urges the County Executive Committee Member in charge of Youth, Culture, Sports, Gender and Social Services to -

- a) Develop a Social Economic Empowerment program for all persons living under abject poverty in Murang'a County in the financial year 2017/2018 Budget.
- b) Develop a comprehensive policy framework for the poverty eradication and social economic empowerment.
